

Hans Biss Clinic

March 20-22, 2010
Hearthstone Riding Stables

Hans Biss is a Grand Prix Dressage trainer from Hamburg Germany. He was an instructor at Warendorf in Germany for many years and has had a successful career with his own stables in Hamburg where he owned and trained the Olympic horse Renault, who was the reserve horse for Reiner Klimke at the Olympics in Mexico. Hans has trained many horses and riders to the Grand Prix level, he is an international dressage judge, and gives clinics throughout the United States and Germany.

The Houston clinic will be held at Hearthstone Riding Stables. Everybody is welcome to participate as riders or auditors. Riders from training level to advanced will benefit. If you are interested in riding with Hans, please contact Rebekah Wesatzke at 281-398-1665.
